Saturday, October 28, 2017
3:00 PM – 8:00 PM	NRMN Southeast Training Hub (By Invitation Only)
Sunday, October 29, 2017
7:30 AM – 8:00 AM	Community Engagement Workshop Addressing Challenges and Measuring Impact: Best Practices in Community Engagement Research
	Breakfast Networking and Welcome	Angela Sy, Dr.PH University of Hawaii, Manoa
		Tabia H. Akintobi, PhD Morehouse School of Medicine
7:00 AM – 8:00 AM	NRMN Southeast Training Hub (By Invitation Only) Breakfast Plenary: Deconstructing NIH
	Facilitator	Jeffrey Engler, PhD
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM	NRMN Southeast Training Hub (By Invitation Only) Shark Tank Spotlight Plenary
	Facilitator	TBD
8:00 AM – 10:30 AM	Community Engagement Workshop Addressing Challenges and Measuring Impact: Best Practices in Community Engagement Research
	Moderators / Co-Chairs	Priscilla Pemu, MD, MSCR Professor of Medicine Morehouse School of Medicine
		Stephan Zuchner, MD, PhD Professor for Human Genetics and Neurology University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine
		Michael E. Zwick, PhD Associate Professor, Human Genetics Emory University
	Keynote Presentation NIH All of Us Program: Engaging Minority Communities	Dara Richardson-Heron, MD Chief Engagement Officer All of Us Research Program National Institutes of Health
	Spotlight Presentation Komen for Cure Tissue Bank	Connie Rufenbarger Advocate and Consumer Representative Susan G. Komen for the Cure® Tissue Bank Indiana University Simon Cancer Center
	Panel Discussion Who Owns the Samples in a Tissue Bank? Communicating the Value of Tissue Repositories and Biological Samples	Rev. Dr. Leland Jones, Sr. Pastor Greater New Light Missionary Baptist Church Atlanta, GA
		Brian Rivers, PhD PI Cancer Health Equity Program Morehouse School of Medicine
		Julie Dutil, PhD Department of Biochemistry Ponce Health Sciences University
		Nick Pulliam Graduate Student Indiana University
		Roland Matthews, MD Professor and Chair, OB/GYN Morehouse School of Medicine
8:30 AM – 10:00 AM	IRB Administrators Training Workshop for Single IRB (sIRB) Human Subjects Protection, Ethics, and Informed Consent
	Facilitators: The NIH Common Rule and Requirement for Single Institutional Review Board (sIRB) in NIH Sponsored Multi-Site Research	Stephen Sodeke, PhD IRB Chair Tuskegee University
		Brenda Klement, PhD IRB Chair, Morehouse School of Medicine

Revised 9/15/2017 1:15 PM Eastern

Sunday, October 29, 2017

8:30 AM – 10:30 AM	The Association of Black Cardiologists Multi-Site Cardiovascular Study Training Workshop to Ensure Diversity, Inclusion and Meaningful Participation in Clinical Trials The ABC Cardiovascular Disease Study is a national foundational registry that is co-sponsored by the Association of Black Cardiologists (ABC), Morehouse School of Medicine (MSM), and the RCMI Translational Research Network (RTRN) to address critical gaps in the quality of health care for underserved patients, including African Americans, Hispanic Americans, and other populations that are underrepresented in clinical trials. The data and key measurements collected and tracked will be used in new quality improvement initiatives supporting underserved populations and will report on adherence to evidence-based guidelines. Additionally, the CVD Study will support enrollment in clinical trials; research and publication from data collection will provide invaluable insight to guide improved care practices and serve as a key resource to address issues related to participant recruitment and retention in clinical trials. Who should attend? Physicians; nurse practitioners; principal and co-investigators; research coordinators; and research nurses.
	Welcome	Sandra A. Harris-Hooker, PhD Morehouse School of Medicine
